

The Crittenden Press

VOLUME XIII

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY. JUNE 15 1893.

NUMBER 50

PRICES AND QUALITY

Of Goods
Will Always Sell without Much Labor

I Have the Largest and Best Stock ever in the County.

A CAR LOAD OF MASON JARS

" " " FREDONIA FLOUR,

" " " SALT.

100 DOZ TIN BUCKETS, ALL SIZES,

100 BARRELS GRANULATED SUGAR

" " " LIGHT C SUGAR

100 SACKS OF COFFEE,

500 SETS TABLE KNIVES AND FORKS,

50 BBLS MOLASSES, ALL KINDS

COUNTRY BACON,

" " " LARD,

" " " SHOULDER,

A house full of Stone ware. The largest and best selected stock of Queensware and Glassware ever seen in this section, and 1000 other articles too numerous to mention, that will be sold cheaper than ever before. A call is all I ask.

M. SCHWAB.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Horribly Calamity in Washington City.

Ford's Old Theater Falls to the Ground.

Nearly Five Hundred People in the Building.

BUT FEW OF THEM ESCAPE SERIOUS INJURIES.

A SCORE OR MORE INSTANTLY KILLED.

The Building That Collapsed Was the One in Which Abraham Lincoln Was Assassinated and Used by the Government as a Part of the Office of the Surgeon General of the Army—Four Hundred and Seventy-Five Persons Were Killed in the Building.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Ford's old theater, the building in which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated, and used by the government for many years as part of the office of the surgeon general of the army, collapsed Friday morning, shortly after 9 o'clock, with a terrible loss in result of life and injury.

The building stood on Tenth street, northwest, between E and F streets and not far from Pennsylvania avenue. It had been condemned by the city—some claim as many as 15 or 20—and had been repaired, propped up and renovated from year to year.

There were 475 persons mostly government clerks, employed in the building, and nearly all of those were at work when the building fell.

An excavation for an electric light plant was being made in the cellar of the structure—a story affair—and according to the best information obtainable, the workers had dug beneath the foundation supports in the front of the building, weakening them to such an extent that the walls gave way before they could be jacked. This explanation of the cause for the incident is the only one advanced, but it seems somewhat strange in view of the fact that the top floor gave way first.

Men who were in the building say the crash came without warning. Those on the top floor were suddenly precipitated to the floor below, and the weight of falling timbers and furniture carried the second and first floors with it. Fortunately only the forward half of the floor gave way. The outer edges of the floors and the rear part of the structure remained intact. The walls did not fall.

The news that the building had fallen spread with lightning-like rapidity and soon Tenth street and adjacent thoroughfares were crowded with people. Within an hour the news was known all over Washington and hundreds of anxious relatives and friends swarmed to the vicinity of the old theater. Women appealed anxiously to every bystander for information about some particular person, while men came with tears in their eyes and imploringly besought the policemen to let them through the police lines that they might obtain some knowledge of their friends and relatives.

A general fire alarm was turned in a few minutes after the crash, and then all the ambulances in the city were summoned. As quickly as possible the police and firemen formed a rescue brigade, and ready hands assisted them to take out the killed and wounded.

In less than an hour about 25 people had been taken out, and every few minutes thereafter scores still more would be borne on a stretcher from the building.

Both the military and naval authorities took prompt action. General Schofield ordered two troops of cavalry from Fort Myer, just across the river, and two companies of infantry from the arsenal, to the scene of the disaster. The secretary of war directed that all naval medical officers stationed here and also provided the naval hospital to receive the injured. The commandant at the navy yard was ordered to render full assistance in his power.

Even before the first victims were called into resuscitation and soundances, carriages and other vehicles, filled with the wounded, were quickly traversing the city in every direction.

No one who escaped injury could get away in less than a few hours.

For there was but one road, and constantly the whole building was filled with blinding lime-dust.

The Dead.

George Q. Allen of Pennsylvania, aged 52, unmarried.

George A. Arnold of Virginia, aged 55, leaves widow.

Samuel P. Barnes of Pennsylvania, aged 65, leaves wife and family.

John B. Barnes of District of Columbia, aged 54, leaves wife and family.

J. F. Chapin of South Carolina, aged unknown. He leaves a widow and three young children.

Jernigan, Valley of Pennsylvania.

Joseph H. Chapman of Kansas, aged 37, leaves a widow and two little girls in straitened circumstances.

J. G. Gege of Michigan, aged unknown, leaves a wife and child.

J. M. Jarvis of Michigan.

John W. Davis of Wisconsin, 217 H Street N. W.

David Jordan of Missouri, aged 89, leaves a widow and little child in straitened circumstances.

John W. Evans of New Jersey, aged 55, leaves a widow and two little girls in straitened circumstances.

John F. Evans of New Jersey, aged 55, leaves a widow and two little girls in straitened circumstances.

The Duke Again in New York.

NEW YORK, June 12.—After their wanderings and sightseeing in the west the Duke of Veragua and party, in all 13 persons, are again housed in New York. They arrived at the Grand Central station Sunday evening.

Set sail to Go West.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Russian extradition treaty, which has been the subject of negotiation for more than six months, has at last been formally signed, and will henceforth be the law until it is superseded by another.

The treaty was not resigned until a late

MARINES LANDED.

They Establish a Camp Near the Nicaragua Canal.

Claiming It is Done to Protect Our Interests There.

The Natives Greatly Excited and Consider the Explanation Most Terrible—Uch-Sau Will Be Asked to Explain—General Montiel Considers the End Has Come.

NEW YORK, June 12.—A special to the World from Managua, Nicaragua says:

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the American warship Atlanta who established a camp near the village of Santa Fe, close to the canal, has caused the greatest excitement, even exceeding that which prevailed during the late revolution or upon the overthrow of U.S. forces. The agitation has extended to all classes, who believe that the United States is taking possession of the country, and the passive attitude of the government is severely commented upon, even called treacherous.

The landing of marines and sailors from the

LOCAL NEWS.

Fine rain.
Clean up your premises.
Corn planting is over at last.
Marion precinct has no local option after all.

Business dull in town, but lively in the country.

Buy grain cradles, mowing blades, from Pierce & Son.

The best oil and binder twine at Pierce & Son.

Mr. J. Bell Kevil has moved his law office into the Masonic building.

All kinds of summer hardware at Pierce & Son.

The opening ball at Crittenden Springs to-morrow.

Jelly glasses of all descriptions at Schwab's.

Jelly glasses of all descriptions at Schwab's.

There seems to be no solution of the school problem in Marion.

Mrs. Judge Nunn is very ill at the residence of Mr. E. C. Flanary.

5 gallon galvanized iron oil can for $1.00 at Pierce & Son's.

A bargain for every body on our 5 and 10 cent counter. Pierce & Son.

Gilbert's chalybeate well is again attracting considerable attention.

So far as attendance was concerned Monday was a dull county court.

Carpenters can save money by getting my prices on nails.—Schwab.

The people of Sugar Grove want an iron fence around their cemetery.

Jelly glasses of all descriptions at Schwab's.

Stone jars and churns at reduced prices at Schwab's.

Bring all of your meat and lard to Weldon & Son.

For want of milk the creamery suspended business Tuesday.

Stone jars and churns at reduced prices. M. Schwab.

Capt. W. J. Stone is expected at Crittenden Spring this week.

Parties are talking of starting an ax handle at Marion.

Buy buggies, Spring wagons, carts, harness, whips, saddles, bridles, etc., from Pierce & Son and save money.

Best coal oil 10¢ and 15 cents per gallon at Schwab's.

When you want a barrel of good flour go to Weldon & Son.

J. B. Hubbard a farmer bold and brave, of Shady Grove, was in town Monday.

Just received a car load of Mason fruit jars, will be sold regardless of profit. Schwab.

Keep your bicycles and goats off of the side walks says the town authorities.

J. E. Brown has joined the host of applicants for positions in the internal revenue service.

Marion is not going to get a school without paying for it, that is an absolute certainty.

I am over stocked with country shoddy, will sell at 12 cents until June 15th.—Schwab.

When you want anything in the grocery line don't fail to go to Weldon & Son they keep the best.

Weldon & Son keeps the best line of crockery and glassware in town.

A full line of walking and riding cultivators, very cheap at Pierce & Son.

Weldon & Son has just received a car load of salt.

Plenty of country lard and sides at Schwab's.

Adjustable arch walking cultivators for $17.50 at Pierce & Son's.

Mr. H. T. Flanary and wife united with the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Jas. Lemon, the heretofore butter maker at the creamery, has gone to work at a saw mill.

The opening ball at Crittenden Springs to-morrow promises to be a brilliant success.

Mr. M. Gahagan, of near Weston, was in town Monday. Mr. G. has made farming in this country a success.

Louis Belont has the record as a banana eater. Nine-ton large ones make him a fair lunch.

A guard at the branch pen, at Elizaville, was in town Monday on the lookout for a couple of escaped convicts.

F. E. Robertson & Co.'s, distillery, will close down on the 20th. The firm's warehouse is full of "Old Hickory."

Tom, Joe and George Hughes, all thrifty farmers of Weston, were in town Tuesday. While here they purchased a harvesting machine.

The County Judge rules that Marion is not a local option town. This is correct, but unless a fellow knows how to pull the "ropes," he finds it a job to get a drink.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Isaac Linley Accepts the Third Party Nomination for the Legislature.

Last week there appeared in the Press a little notice calling the Third Party Committee together at Marion Monday, June 12. The Committee met according to the call, and the result of the meeting is a candidate in the person of Mr. Isaac Linley, of Livingston, for the Legislature.

The Third Party Committee was called to order Monday at the court house by Dr. J. R. Clark, of Marion.

Mr. W. E. Flanary presented resolutions endorsing the Omaha platform, and nominating Isaac Linley for the Legislature. The chairman put the resolutions on their passage, and they were adopted without discussion.

Mr. Linley was introduced by Mr. A. H. Cardin. He said that he accepted the nomination and was proud of it. He endorsed the Third party platform from end to end. He thought the Government ought to loan the people money at a low rate of interest, if the people could give the Government good security; if they could secure it by land mortgages. He was for free and unlimited coinage of silver. He wanted the Government to buy the railroads.

He thought the Democratic party was incapable. He had nothing against the Republican party; some of the brightest pages in the history of the country were made bright by the acts of the Republican party, but the party had outlived its usefulness. He said that he left the Democratic party last fall. Mr. Linley concluded by saying that "if you hear any evil reports about me do not believe them, wait until you see me, none of them are true."

Mr. F. M. Clement followed Mr. Lindley. He said that he was the nominee of the Democratic party; the nomination had come to him fairly. He was a thorough Democrat, his was the Democracy that was expounded by Cleveland, Carlisle and Watterson. This is a free country, every man has a right to belong to any party that pleased him best, but while he was a Democrat, he had fault to find with the man who belonged to another party. He said that only in a general way could he give an idea as to what he would favor as legislation. He was opposed, as a rule to issue bonds of any kind; no State, county or district should issue bond except under extreme circumstances. States and counties should, if possible, transact all business on a cash basis.

He favored, leaving the convict labor to be worked inside the penitentiary walls. He was for a good road law, but knew of no feasible plan for making good roads; we could not afford to pile our roads; we are not able to do it.

R. B. Dorr, the old-timer, adjusted his glasses, re-read the invitation carefully, and said: "Jim, Jim, what do you mean; this nothing but an invitation; that certainly has nothing to do with you." "It hasn't," fairly roared Jim. "No," said the lawyer, "your name is not where mentioned. Ain't I the manager of Crittenden Springs? screamed the glint, as he mocked the presumption from his slowed brow; "didn't I drop everything and come over here because of my extensive acquaintance; didn't my friends tell me they would come, if I would let them know when I took charge, didn't we have those invitations printed to let them know about it, and now even you don't know my name as printed on it. Look, J. Strother Smith; nobody knows me by that name, not even my mother, or wife, and already some of my friends are writing to Strother Smith, asking the whereabouts of Jim Smith. Of course I want damages, and big damages from Jenkins, who is responsible for it all. I don't part my hair in the middle, I have no soiled pink shirts, and yet this is all soiled upon me. Damages, yes sir, damages, by jings, I will have."

Died.

At the residence of his mother Mrs. Fannie R. Lemon in Crittenden county on the 9th day of June 1893, Richard Lucien Lemon, aged 19 years one month and three days.

Yes, after long and patient suffering, the close attention of his physician, the diligent, anxious and laborious care of his fond mother and the kind attentions and good offices of neighbors and friends, he came to his final end at the setting of the sun on last Friday.

To speak well of Dick, requires no partiality on the part of those who knew him. In many respects he was an exception of a boy. To his seniors in years he was respectful and polite, to his juniors he was kind and helpful and with his associates always courteous and pleasant. His good traits of character will be long remembered and praised by the young and the old in the Iron Hill country and wherever else he may have been known. Now sleeps calmly in the sugar Grove cemetery. "Peace to his ashes and honor to his memory."

His Uncle.

Wheat harvest on hands in few days. An insect is in some neighborhoods, injuring the crop by cutting the stalks of straw near the ground. Several crops have been materially injured in that way.

Monday young Henry Yeakey executed a $500 bond with O. P. Yeakey and G. J. Hamilton as sureties for his appearance before Judge Moore when wanted in a trial to settle his interest in a little citizen of the Hurricane neighborhood.

Mrs. Sallie Padon Worton, wife of Mr. J. M. Worton, a popular young lawyer of Smithland, died last Wednesday. She was a most excellent lady, a lovely and loving wife, and the Press deeply sympathizes with the bereaved husband in his irreparable loss.

Yesterday a Miss Pulliam, of Eldorado, Ill., accompanied by her father, was in town, consulting an attorney about bringing a breach of promise suit against Thos. Brantly, a young man of this county. The suit has not yet been filed.

Mr. H. V. McChesney, of Smithland, was in town Saturday. He has been teaching at Smithland, and is very popular as a teacher there; as an evidence of their appreciation of him as a teacher, the trustees have contracted with him to teach next year at an increased salary.

Deeds Recorded.

Enoch Belt to E. N. Todd 100 acres for $400.

HEARIN WINS.

The Long Drawn Out Fight Ends.

Monday's evening Louisville papers reach Marion Tuesday morning. They came in as usual last Tuesday morning and in a few minutes thereafter it was known that Congressman Stone had cast his vote for a post master at Marion and that the choice of the Congressman was Judge A. M. Hearin.

This settles the long fight over the juicy plum; and the old will go on, and the new go in, while the world will roll on about as usual.

J. Strother Smith.

Everybody knows plain Jim Smith, when he writes you a letter he signs it "J. S." Of course we all know that he is manager of the Crittenden Springs; he invested his time and money in the famous hotbed this year because he had a large acquaintance, among people who usually go to watering places and if his many warm friends knew that he had charge of Crittenden they would summer with him. Jim was in town Monday, and Jim was mad; he was not only mildly angry, but raving mad, and he was talking about courts, lawyers, damages, juries, and things of that kind. After he had simmered down to about 104 in the shade, he called a hand hammer while in the other hand he held his upper lip to its accustomed place. He tarried not for a talk, but blinking his off eye, passed on, striking his foot against a rock, he stumbled, and as he fell, he looked back at the inanimate object that caused his collapse and said: "Dad-blame that stone; you are not the first of the name to trip me."

Mr. H. M. Cook could not be found; he was out on his farm, probably following the plow, like Cincinnati of old, waiting to be called to serve his country.

John Bennett was found in the undertaker's establishment, sitting on a coffin box, whistling: "How Tide-ones and Tasteless the Hours."

Rev. B. E. Martin was not in town; when last seen he was in search of some school trustee who presided over some school district, in which there was no contest for the situation as teacher.

How They Take It.

Upon the receipt of the news about the result of the post office fight the Press sent out a man to interview the vanquished fellow citizens. The first man met with was John Morse. He was rushing round hunting for a value. "What will be my further course? I am going out to establish agencies for Morse's Patent Ribbon Rack" he said, as he pitched the value at a neighbor who called from across the street: "Is there any mail for me?"

The next late candidate for post office honors, encountered was Herman Koltinsky. The snave little gentleman sported a far-away-night-been look, and said, "Well, about as I expected." Just then a customer came in and called for "some dried Herron." Kol made a dive for scale weight and the customer sped around the corner.

About this time R. B. Dorr, the old timer, never shirking Democrat, came around the corner, bearing upon his shoulder a step ladder, and in one hand a hammer while in the other hand he held his upper lip to its accustomed place. He tarried not for a talk, but blinking his off eye, passed on, striking his foot against a rock, he stumbled, and as he fell, he looked back at the inanimate object that caused his collapse and said: "Dad-blame that stone; you are not the first of the name to trip me."

Mr. T. J. Hill, editor of the Princeton Banner, was in town Sunday.

J. T. Walker, of Knottawa, was in town Monday.

H. C. Moore, of Hopkinsville, spent Sunday in Marion.

Mr. R. H. Woods, of Livingstonton was in town Tuesday.

Mr. H. K. Woods will make an extended trip through the west.

Dr. A. S. H. Boyd, of Toln was in town Tuesday.

Mr. T. J. Hill, editor of the Prince-

Resolutions of Respect.

Our dear friend Mrs. Mollie Loving wife of H. H. Loving departed this life May 31, 1893, after a protracted and painful illness, therefore be it Resolved, We the "Ladies Industrial Society" of the Presbyterian church at Marion, Ky., of which society she was a good and useful member. We deeply lament the loss with aching hearts, we meet to pay this our feeble, but sad tribute to her memory.

2. That we bow with Christian resignation to him that doeth all things well and with prayerful hearts we beseech Him to help us in this affliction. That we extend our heartfelt sympathies to the grief stricken husband and dear little ones, her many friends and relatives. May God sustain, and help them bear this great loss, and we humbly commend them to that grace which weeps with them who weep.

3. That copies of these resolutions be sent to the Press for publication and to the family of the deceased, by order of the society.

Mrs. R. W. Wilson, Mrs. Dick Pickens, Mrs. H. Long,

Card of Thanks.

We desire to tender our sincere thanks to the good people who so generously and so kindly administered to the wants and necessities of one husband and father during his late illness. We appreciate the favors and shall always tenderly remember them.

SARAH WELDON,
EMMA WELDON,
Pinkeyville, Ky., June 8,

Mr. S. Hodge has formed a partnership with Judge Hewlett for the practice of law at Princeton. Mr. Hodge will not move his family to Princeton, but will remain there himself.

Mr. W. L. Elder, of Caseyville, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jacobs, of this county.

Mr. Albert Weldon, of Toln, is in town. He thinks something of moving to Marion.

Mr. David Kevil, of Sparty, Ky., is spending a few days with his relatives in Marion.

Mrs. Woodlark, of Caseyville, is the guest of her daughters, the Misses Wodlark, of this place.

B. F. McMiccan caught his hand in the running gear of a pea-nut roaster a day or two ago, and now the hand is in a swing, and Ben unit for work, but the roaster is doing business as usual.

The citizens of Bowling Green and Warren county held a mass meeting Saturday and instructed for Bowling Green first for the state capitol and Louisville record.

Town lots of all sizes for sale by R. C. Walker. If you want a lot $0.200 or if you want five acres in the suburbs of Marion, see R. C. Walker at once. Prices low, terms easy.

Mr. Ed. Harpenden advertises his property at Frankfort for sale. It is a good business point and any one desiring to invest in business in a country place, will do well to see Mr. Harpenden.

In the Iron Hill neighborhood Sunday evening John Stewart had to kill his fine fox hound. It gave evidence of being afflicted with hydrocephalus biting other dogs and some stock.

The docket of the Circuit Court is filling up very slowly. Two suits were filed last week. W. E. Wilcox sues Jas. Wittenberry on a $750 rent note, and Thos. Minner sues Chas. Minner on a $750 promissory note.

CHAPTER II.

Prof. Hayes, the luminary suddenly disappears from the skies. A pair of gold spectacles, a watch chain and a costly book belonging to Jos. Young Robt. Sutcliffe disappear about this time. The grand jury says Hayes is responsible for the departure of the articles, and that he carried a pistol concealed.

CHAPTER III.

Sunday June 11, an officer from Sunbury, Ky., knocks upon the jail door at Marion; the door is open, Hayes walks in, and will remain until the June term of court, when the remaining chapter of the story will be published.

CHAPTER IV.

The big damage suit of Holden vs Hubbard in the Caldwell Circuit Court was settled Monday, the defendant not paying the plaintiff $250. A judgment was rendered for $1,000, but the plaintiff accepted $250 for Infants and Children.

CASTORIA

"Castoria is well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Avent, M. D., 111 St. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colds, Consumption, Sore Throat, Distress, Enteritis, Kill Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced good results." EWEN F. PARKER, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

R. C. WALKER

Has the Best Stock of
INKS AND MUCILAGE.

Muciage
FOR THE
Office or Library.

He also carries the largest and best selected stock of

Writing Paper,

INCLUDING—

Legal Cap,
Fools Cap,
Letter,
Commercial Note,
Fine Note Paper,
Fine Box Paper,
All the Latest Styles,
From 5c to 50c per Box.
Regret Cards,
Visiting Cards Printed to Order.

The Best Pens and Pencils. Also

BLANK BOOKS

Of all sizes, from 1c to $5.00. Pocket books and Purse, Photograph Albums, Autograph Albums. A fine Line of

Writing Tablets,
For pen or pencil, at from 1c to 50c.

ARGEST LINE OF HARPS IN TOWN.

Obituary.

Lawson R. Hughes was born in Crittenden county, Ky., Sept. 8, 1837 and was married to Miss Nannie E. Simpson, Oct. 20, 1869. About one year after his marriage he professed religion and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at Mt. Zion, of which he was a faithful member till his death. For the last fifteen years brother Hughes was an invalid, and though able to get about more or less, he was never regarded as a well man. For several months previous to his death, he was a patient sufferer. On the 15th of March, 1893, at the old homestead, where he was born, raised, and had lived, he breathed his last in the arms of a merciful Saviour. "My sky is clear," was the response in answer to a question as to his hopes of heaven. "Yes," said he, "I feel that I shall have home in heaven." When his death was known throughout the community, his loss was keenly felt, particularly among the needy and poor. A sad vacancy is noticed and felt at old Mt. Zion, where he loved so much and where he worshipped so long. A large concourse of people attended his funeral. In the old Mt. Zion cemetery, his body repose till the resurrection of the just. Peace to his ashes.

"A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his love has given; And though the body shrivels here, The soul is safe in heaven." —E. M. GIBSONS.

Died on the morning of the thirteenth of December 1892, little Hugh infant son of J. N. and Ida M. Roberts, aged four months and six days. We administered many remedies, we mingled our prayers and tears together as we watched by his little cradle, but in vain, he faded like a gnat before our weeping eyes. His little body gave way beneath the mortal stroke of disease and his spirit returned to God who gave it. And we are left here to walk through the trials and bereavements of earth, looking forward to the time when we will go home to that sweet God. But we are not left to ourselves, this is our faith, that the same loving hand which one day did us the embrace will lead us and guide us, bringing us each day nearer home and everlasting happiness.

Yes, we are coming baby coming When the storms of life are o'er, We will meet thee, kindly greet thee, Where pain and parting comes no more. —A FRIEND.

Theams, the little son of Henry L. and Sarah E. Beld, was born Oct. 13, 1893, and died of pneumonia, March 1, 1893. He was a bright and cheerful little fellow, giving much attention to books and always lead his class at school, he attended Sunday school, and but few of his age had such knowledge of the Bible.

To the bereaved mother we say, "Weep no more for Tommie is he resting in the Paradise of God, where there is no night, neither sorrow, nor pain, for the hand of God has wiped all tears from their eye and they shall weep no more," our Saviour says, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Tommie's home in the home is the home of many mansions and his companions are angels. The chilly waters of death Jordan are passed and he stands among the bloodstained throng on the other side, having joined the song of redemption he sings praises to Christ who redeemed him; then be faithful until death, for our God is a son, and a child. —W. F. R.

Little Gertrude, daughter of Grant and Lola Davidson was born December the 6th, 1891, and on May 25th, 1893, God saw fit to close her mild blue eyes, never to open them again on earth, and now she is in the realm of the blest, where there is no more pain. Dear parents weep not for little Gertrude but weep submissively and say thy will be done Lord not ours, and when the last roll is called you will meet your angel child, where there is no parting. Kiss no fare-well words. Oh, yes, but a little while and we'll be with little Gertrude, basking in the sunlight of eternal glory. I imagine I can see her bright form and hear her gentle voice saying, as she gazes out over the walls of Heaven, mama, papa and little brother come up higher and enjoy this eternal rest. Precious baby we have laid thee, I, the peaceful grave enshrine, But thy memory shall be cherished Till we see thy Heavenly face.

Yes our darling has gone, On earth we will see her no more. But I know I will meet her In Heaven where parting will be no more. —A COUSIN.

How Not to Get Into Print.
Don't have any enemies.
Don't have any friends.
Don't inherit money.
Don't lose it.
Don't sign any petitions.
Don't subscribe to any lecture courses of stock companies.
Don't recommend anything.
Don't get victimized.
Don't exhibit any public spirit.
Don't tell stories.

township or elsewhere.
Don't allow other people to visit you.

Don't show any interest in music, art, literature, science or religion.
Don't meet long lost friends or relatives.
Don't go insane.
Don't get sick.
Don't accept presents.
Don't do anything that might bring you a vote of thanks or condemnation.
Your work is solicited.

Don't sue anybody.
Don't get sued.
Don't go to law at all.
Don't live to be an octogenarian.
Don't die.—Detroit Tribune.

HILARY A. HERBERT.

S. B. PERKINS
TINNER,
Painter and Paper-Hanger.
MARION, KY.

Roiling, guttering, and repairing done on short notice. House painting and paper-hanging. Your work is solicited.

HENRY BROS.,
Dealers in

Marble & Granite
Monuments,

Familiars, Cemetery fences & Specialty

Marion, Ky.

They do the best work at the low prices. Don't buy until you get our prices. You will save money.

Princeton Poultry Yards

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Fine Thoroughbred Poultry Eggs for sale from six varieties. Silver Sprigged
Hamburgs, Silver-Laced Wyandots,
Light Brahma, Black Minorca,
Brown Leghorns, Dominique Leghorns.
A few fine cockerels for sale now.
Eggs, $2.00 per dozen or $3.00 per 20.
Address U. K. Haines,
Box 30, Princeton, Ky.

M.R.T.E.C.BRINLY

Has the following to say about the Electropoise and how it can save the effects of La Grippe.

One Friday, Miller, Hardy &
Loyd, January 30, 1893.

Gents While attending the Memphis Fair some months ago, I was attacked with severe pains in my arm and legs, the effect of grippe. I met your great friend, Mr. Parker, who is an old friend, and I insisted that I use the Electropoise in his office, which I did with wonderful results. In a short time the pain left me, and I concluded to put on the Electropoise, and I continued to do so until the grippe left me, and would not part with it for any consideration. It is certainly a wonderful instrument, and it is wonderful as to how it does its work, yet it does it. I think it is the duty of every man to make use of the Electropoise and to make it known to all men to make use of any benefit in them, and the Electropoise certainly will. Very respectfully, T. E. C. BRINLEY.

To the bereaved mother we say, "Weep no more for Tommie is he resting in the Paradise of God, where there is no night, neither sorrow, nor pain, for the hand of God has wiped all tears from their eye and they shall weep no more," our Saviour says, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The diseases enged by the Electropoise are not confined to any particular class of ailments. By its use you can, through the power of suggestion, rid yourself of any disease, whether it be a nervous or mental disorder, and it is done away with the McCormick get many of their ideas from the farmers and crystallize them into practical working machines.

You can O. K. the blots you get from the practical farmers—perhaps that's why the practical farmers O. K. the "Machine of Steel"—it's made to meet their needs.

The McCormick Catalogue is invaluable to the farmer after improved harvesting machinery.

MCCORMICK HARVESTING MACHINE CO.
CHICAGO, ILL.
Pierce & Son, Agents.

A Picnic On a Farm

In a sequestered, wooded spot, by a cooling stream—a woodland contemplation this for cut folks. They wonder why it is that the farmer does not more frequently go picnicking—why he does not get away from town and vacation. They do not realize that the now-a-days farmer finds enjoyment in his work.

The McCormick Machine of Steel is one of the modern pleasures inviting occupations of the farmer.

It is such a handy machine and so remarkable in its performances that the old timers and the hardy farmers is done away with the McCormick get many of their ideas from the farmers and crystallize them into practical working machines.

You can O. K. the blots you get from the practical farmers—perhaps that's why the practical farmers O. K. the "Machine of Steel"—it's made to meet their needs.

The McCormick Catalogue is invaluable to the farmer after improved harvesting machinery.

MCCORMICK HARVESTING MACHINE CO.
CHICAGO, ILL.
Pierce & Son, Agents.

BUCKSKIN
BREECHES
BEST MADE, BEST FITTING, BEST WEARING

JEAN PANTS
IN THE WORLD.

FAIRBANK'S CLAIROTE SOAP
Indispensable in every well regulated family for all Household and Laundry purposes.
Made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO. ST. LOUIS.

It Tastes Good

One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk" but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.

Scott's Emulsion cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuralgia, Diseases, Bronchitis, etc. As palatable as milk. Get only the genuine. Prepared by Scott & Sons, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.

Scott's Emulsion

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH RED CROWN
DIAMOND BRAND
PENNYROYAL PILLS

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE
LONDON MEDICAL COMPANY
LONDON, ENGLAND

WALKER & OLIVE,

DEALERS IN

FURNITURE

OF ALL KINDS FOR

Parlor, Dining-Room, Bed-Room Hall and Kitchen

We carry a complete stock of Bureaus, Bed-steads, Wash Stands, Chairs of every description, Mattresses of all kinds, Lounges, Safes, and in fact everything needed in the furnishing of the home. We will appreciate a call if you need any thing in our line. We also carry

A Complete Stock Of

COFFINS AND CASKETS.

We have an elegant hearse for funeral occasions.

Walker & Olive.

JESSE OLIVE.

CLARK & OLIVE,

DEALERS IN

Pine Lumber,

SUCH AS

Flooring, Ceiling, Siding, Casing, Moulting all Kinds of Finishing Lumber.

Full Stock Always on Hand. The Best Lumber ever on this Market. Prices the Lowest

HILL'S
Double Chloride of Gold Tablets

REMEMBER WE GUARANTEE A CURE AND INVITE CAREFUL INVESTIGATION AS TO OUR RESPONSIBILITY AND THE MERITS OF OUR TABLETS.

Drunkensness and Morphine Habit can be cured at home, and without the knowledge of the patient, who will voluntarily stop smoking or chewing in a few days. During treatment patients are allowed the free use of Liquor or Morphine, and such times they shall voluntarily give them up, or shall be obliged to place sufferers from any of these habits in communication with persons who have been cured by the use of our TABLETS.

HILL'S Double Chloride of Gold Tablets are to be had for $1.00 per package. If you drink or smoke keep them, enclose us $1.00 and we will send you a package of our TABLETS.

If you are RECEIVED into purchasing any of the various nostrums that are offered for sale, Ask for HILL'S TABLETS and take no other.

Manufactured only by

OHIO VALLEY RAILWAY CO.

TIME CARD

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

No. 1. Evansville.....	10:00 a.m.	No. 2. No.
Ar Henderson.....	10:15 a.m.	8:55 p.m.
Ar Corydon.....	11:22 a.m.	9:22 p.m.
Ar Morganfield.....	11:55 a.m.	9:55 p.m.
Ar Huntington.....	1:12 p.m.	10:45 p.m.
Ar DeKoven.....	1:25 p.m.	10:41 p.m.
Ar Sturgis.....	1:55 p.m.	10:46 p.m.
Ar Marion.....	2:15 p.m.	10:50 p.m.
Ar Henderson.....	2:30 p.m.	10:45 p.m.

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

No. 1. Princeton.....	5:30 a.m.	No. 2. No.
Ar Marion.....	6:37 a.m.	7:08 p.m.
Ar Sturgis.....	7:01 a.m.	7:55 p.m.
Ar DeKoven.....	7:55 a.m.	8:10 p.m.
Ar Morganfield.....	8:50 a.m.	8:46 p.m.
Ar Corydon.....	9:25 a.m.	9:25 p.m.
Ar Evansville.....	1:10 a.m.	10:45 p.m.

UNIONTOWN BRANCH,
ROUTE 10.

No. 1. Morrisville.....	8:15 a.m.	No. 2. No.
No. 13, 1:40 p.m.	No. 16, 11:00 p.m.	7:15 a.m.
Arrive Uniontown—No. 11, 9:15 p.m.		12:30 p.m.
No. 13, 1:30 p.m.; No. 15, 10:25 p.m.		12:45 p.m.

NORTH BOUND.

M. B. CUTTER.....	W. H. PRUITT, Gen'l. Supt.	G. F. & P.A.
-------------------	-------------------------------	--------------

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY CURED.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS FROM PERSONS WHO HAVE BEEN CURED BY THE USE OF HILL'S TABLETS.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN—The Hill's Tablets have been using your Liquor and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and confirmed drunkard, and I am sorry to say, he will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly, MATTHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 49, PITTSBURGH, PA.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN—It gives me pleasure to speak a word in favor of your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the Liquor and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and confirmed drunkard, and I am sorry to say, he will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly, HELEN MORRISON, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN—Your Tablets have performed admirably in my case. I am now a non-smoker and non-drinker, and without any effort on my part. Address all Orders to W. L. LEEDY.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.,<